

2009 SHOW SEASON

Weekend Comedy

by Jean & Sam Bobrick

FEBRUARY 6 – FEBRUARY 22, 2009

Two couples mistakenly rent the same mountain cabin for the weekend. One couple is staid and middle aged; the other freewheeling and young. They decide to share and by the end of the weekend, through many "interesting" situations, each has learned quite a bit from the other.

STEAM POWERED ROBOTS

by Steam Powered Giraffe, Jerry Hager

MARCH 28 – MARCH 29, 2009

See the wonderful singing automations. Experience the 8th wonder of the world. Gawk at the semi-realistic imitation of human movement. Hear Cathcy tunes played and sung by metal men. Laugh at Twinkle the dancing albino pygmy bear. Wear your best 1950's era outfit.

Love, Sex and the IRS

by Billy Van Zandt and Jane Milmore

APRIL 3 – APRIL 19, 2009

Two male roommates have lived together for years. Jon has been creative and filed "Leslie" as his spouse for years on his tax returns. The day of reckoning comes when Mr. Spinner of the IRS pays a visit. Leslie dresses as the wife and, well, throw in a couple of girlfriends, a suspicious landlord, Jon's mother and - need we say more. A guaranteed fun filled evening.

Something's Afoot by Book, Music & Lyrics –

James McDonald, David Vos and Robert Gerlach

JUNE 12– JUNE 28, 2009

Something new for us at New Vision, our first light musical. A fun filled, satirical poke at Agatha Christie mysteries begins with 10 people stranded in an isolated English country house during a raging thunderstorm (sound familiar). One by one they are picked off by fiendishly clever devices. Lots of fun moments, wonderful music and interesting effects make this a show not to be missed. See pricing for musicals*
